

Local Deaths

Oliver Ramos Magno

Oliver Ramos Magno, 70, died on Jan. 2, 2018, at Alameda Hospital. He was born Nov. 13, 1947, in Bacoor, Cavite, Philippines, to the late Manuel and Teodorica Magno.

Oliver was a family man who always put his kids and wife ahead of his needs or wants. He was the oldest of nine siblings and joined the U.S. Navy at the age of 19 to seek a better future for his family.

He was the proud grandfather to his three-year-old grandson Sam who could make his face light up like no other. He would have been overjoyed to meet his newest grandchild, Leo, who was born three days after he passed.

After serving 21 years in the U.S. Navy as a chef and then 20 years in the U.S. Postal Service, Oliver retired to enjoy traveling, tending to his garden of numerous vegetables and fruits, cooking for, and spending time with, family and friends. He was a friend to all and naturally had a way to make people around him feel comfortable.

He was known to have a sharp memory and was an animated storyteller often sharing fond memories of his childhood or tales of his former Navy days. He loved to laugh and especially loved to poke fun at his wife Gloria who after 44 years of marriage still fell for most of his jokes.

He loved to visit family and friends in the Philippines and help those in need. He picked up a book and read the newspaper every day — he could carry a conversation on many topics but enjoyed debating about politics or sports. He belonged to the dying breed of do-it-yourself men, learning his handyman skills from his books or visits to the local home improvement stores.

Oliver believed in the simple life, clearly valuing love over money.

Oliver is survived by his wife Gloria M. Magno; two children: daughter Rowena Romero (Ben) and son Lorenz Magno (Kathryn); grandchildren Samuel Oliver Romero and Leo Bautista Magno; eight younger siblings, many nieces, nephews and extended family. He is preceded in death by his parents, his son Allen Ver Magno and daughter Irene Magno.

Visitation will be from 4 to 9 p.m. at Greer Family Mortuary, 2694 Blanding Ave., on Thursday and Friday, Jan. 18 and 19.

A funeral mass will be held at 10 a.m. at St. Barnabas Church, 1427 Sixth St., on Saturday, Jan. 20, followed by interment at St. Mary Cemetery in Oakland.

Edith G. Julian

Feb. 14, 1935 – Jan. 10, 2018

Resident of Alameda

Edith Julian passed in peace with family and friends by her side on Jan. 10. She was born in Corpus Christi, Tex., on Feb. 14, 1935, to Eusebio and Virginia Gonzalez.

She was the beloved wife of the late Roger Julian. She is survived by her daughter Laura, son Mark and grandchildren: Nolan, Emily, Elyssa and Nicolas.

Edith was a long-time resident of Alameda and a talented seamstress and dancer. She enjoyed playing Mahjong with her friends.

Ronald 'Ron' V. Guptill

Ronald V (Ron) Guptill, 85, died on Jan. 5 after a short fight with cancer. Ron was born June 5, 1932, in Los Angeles, to Virgil Guptill and Genevieve Guptill, née McChesney.

Ron grew up on the water in Alameda, graduated from UC Berkeley, and was an Army 1st Lieutenant during the Korean War. He launched a career in heavy equipment and tractor sales starting with John Deere and opening his own dealerships, Guptill Equipment Company in Whittier, Calif., and BayCal Equipment in Livermore.

Ron met Kathy Howard (of Hillsborough, Calif.) when they were both students at Cal and were soon married; their partnership of 62 years, involving love, children, travel and home improvement projects inspired, and occasionally frightened, us all. Like many young couples they spent the first several years of their marriage traveling as part of Ron's military service and then his career before settling in California's Central Valley where they lived for nearly 50 years raising their children and grandchildren.

She will be dearly missed. Family and friends are invited to attend memorial services this Saturday, Jan. 20, at 11 a.m. at the Alameda Funeral and Cremation Services Chapel, 1415 Oak St., with Deacon David Young officiating.

For more information contact Harry W. Greer, funeral director (FDR-745).

of this and other countries with Kathy, occasionally bringing along a child or grandchild for the trip.

He is survived by his four children: Sarah Taylor, Genie Betsch, Kitty Guptill and Chris Guptill and six grandchildren.

Ron's can-do attitude, his do-it-yourself mentality, and his wit and wisdom will be missed.

Michael Joseph McMahon

Sept. 15, 1938 – Jan. 7, 2018

Michael "Mike" McMahon died peacefully at his home in Alameda after a brave fight against glioblastoma. He was known for his wonderful smile, his love of life, family and friends and his "Let's have a party" attitude. He was a joy to be with and a force to be reckoned with if someone he cared about needed help.

Mike was born to James Patrick and Ellen Smith McMahon on Sept. 15, 1938, in Washington, D.C. He had four older brothers: Jack, Jim, Ralph and Gene. He attended St. Theresa Elementary School and St. John's College High School. He received his bachelor's degree from the Catholic University of America and his master's degree from George Washington University.

Mike began his 35-year career with the federal government as an intern for the Navy Department and then as a program analyst for the Federal Aviation Agency. He became one of the first employees at the Office of Economic Opportunity, a.k.a. the War on Poverty, where he worked on the Foster Grandparents program.

He later joined the Department of Urban Development and became Director, Program Policy & Operations for the Urban Development Action Grant program. His final position was program director for Youthbuild, a national program that offered high school dropouts an opportunity to gain both a GED and construction skills.

Following retirement, he tutored grade-school children in reading and volunteered at a food bank in Maryland. After moving to California, he volunteered at the Alameda County Community Food Bank from 2008 to 2017.

Mike married Christine O'Donnell McMahon in 1965 and made her happy for all 52 years. He treasured his children, Beth McMahon-Wise of Alameda, Gregory Ralph McMahon of Brighton, Colo., his granddaughter, Brooke Tyler, his son-in-law, Timothy Wise and Tim's son, Jake.

Mike enjoyed attending opera in San Francisco and Alameda, plays at the Altarena Playhouse and movies.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF Gilberto Aceituno Case No. RP17886382

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of Gilberto Aceituno. A Petition for Probate has been filed by Marvin Aceituno in the Superior Court of California, County of Alameda. The Petition for Probate requests that Marvin Aceituno be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A HEARING on the petition will be held on 1/31/2018, 9:31 a.m., in Department 202, at 2120 Martin Luther King, Jr. Way, 2nd Floor, Berkeley, CA 94704.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for petitioner Daniel J. Ogden, Ogden
