Betty Jean Watkins

Betty Watkins was born in Stockton, on Feb. 14, 1933, and passed away in Rocklin, Calif., on Jan. 2, 2017, surrounded by her family. Betty was known for her kindness, which emanated from her who was lucky enough to be in her presence. She grew up and raised her family in Alameda, and could often be found cooking and dancing in the kitchen. Her door was always open, and she was always there to listen to any problem, making every person feel special and important. She represented the ideal of how to be a better wife, a better friend, a better mother and a better person. She cherished her friends and family more than anything else. Betty's passing is a great loss, and we will hold her memory forever in our hearts. Betty is survived by her husband and best friend of 62 years, Gerald; her children: Christy Pollacci, Kerry Brown (Jeffrey) and Laurie Sramek (Jeff); her grandchildren: Ryan Pollacci (Sara), Megan Pollacci, Connor Brown, Callie Brown and Joe Sramek; her great-grandson, Matthew Pollacci and her brother, Richard Amsbaugh (JoAnne). She was preceded in death by her loving son-in-law Mark Pollacci. The family would like to thank the staff of Sutter Health Hospice of Roseville for the exceptional care and kindness they gave to Betty and her family. There will be no formal service; interment will be private.

Editor's note: Yvonne Keel was well known at the Alameda Sun. Among our first subscribers, no one was more vigilant about ensuring she received a copy of the Sun's early editions than Yvonne. To ensure her copy wasn't taken at her active apartment building, we made special deliveries each Thursday over the fence in her backyard.
