

AUSD Offers Free and Reduced-Price Meals

Sun Staff Reports

Alameda Unified School District (AUSD) announces its policy to serve nutritious meals every school day under the national school lunch program, school breakfast program, and/or the afterschool snack program through June 30, 2021. Children are eligible for free or reduced-price meals if the household income is less than or equal to the federal guidelines.

Households do not need to turn in an application when the household receives a notification letter saying that all children automatically qualify for free meals when any household member receives benefits from CalFresh, CalWORKS, or FDPIR.

Children who meet the definition of foster, homeless, migrant, or runaway, and children enrolled in their school's Head Start program are eligible for free meals. Contact school officials if any child in the household is not on the notification letter. The household must let school officials know if they do not want to receive free or reduced-price meals.

Households that want to apply for meal benefits, must fill out one application for all children in the household and give it to the nutrition office at 2060 Challenger Dr. Applications can be found and printed online at www.alameda.k12.ca.us/foodservices. For a simple and secure method to apply, use the online application at www.myschoolapps.com.

Contact Andrea Assia at 510-337-7079 for help filling out the application. The nutrition office will let you know if your application is approved or denied for free or reduced-price meals.

Food Bank to Remain at Alameda Point

Sun Staff Reports

What was supposed to be a temporary relocation of the Alameda Food Bank (AFB) has moved its operations to its warehouse on Alameda Point is looking like a much longer-term arrangement.

When Alameda County issued a shelter-in-place order on March 16, AFB moved its distribution center from its trailer at Atlantic and Constitution to the larger warehouse on West Ranger Avenue on Alameda Point.

The move created a drive-through system that reduced contact between clients and created a safer environment for staff and volunteers.

The move went smoothly, she said, and AFB is now providing food to 10 times as many clients per day as it was a year ago — up from 800 in July 2019 to almost 8,000 in July 2020.

Volunteers load food into a car at the drive-through food bank.

AFB is planning additional changes to make the facility more efficient and comfortable. This includes converting a storage area into a covered space where volunteers can load food into clients' car trunks during inclement weather.

The $80,000 cost of the renovation will be covered by a federal grant administered by the City of Alameda.
