restrictions relax, Coast Guard members look forward to volunteering again in Alameda schools, with the Friends of the Library book sale, Scouting For Food drive, and more. We are grateful for your partnership and your service, Base Alameda!

New Police Chief Named

On June 8, Alameda welcomes a new Police Chief, Nishant Joshi, currently Deputy Chief of the Oakland Police Department, and an Alameda resident. Chief Joshi brings with him decades of experience and innovative ideas about training, and alternative responses to calls for service involving mental health issues, substance abuse, and homelessness.

His lived experience as the son of immigrants also provides a valuable perspective as our city begins implementing the recommendations of community-led subcommittees to reimagine delivery of police services and address racial justice. Welcome, Chief Joshi!

Graduation congratulations to the Class of 2021

The school year is coming to an end, as are many of the COVID-19 restrictions that resulted in distance learning for more than a year. We acknowledge and congratulate Alameda students who are graduating from elementary, middle, and high school, and college. You persevered in the face of so many challenges and developed tenacity and creativity that will serve you well in future endeavors. Congratulations Graduates!

Vaccination liberation

The reason we can enjoy increasingly relaxed COVID precautions this summer and beyond is because our residents also persevered during the pandemic, by wearing masks, social distancing, frequent hand washing, and more, to protect yourselves and others from this often-deadly infectious disease.

You're also turning out in large numbers to be vaccinated. As of June 1, Alameda County Public Health began tracking the number and percentage of vaccinated residents 12 years and older, and Alameda's statistics are among the best in the county: an impressive 67.1% of eligible Alamedans are fully vaccinated, and 82.9% have received at least one dose.

Anyone 12 years and older can schedule their vaccinations and enjoy the freedom and peace of mind that come from being fully vaccinated. For up-to-date information about where vaccine appointments are available, please visit www.alameda.gov/vaccine.

Happy Summer, everyone! Thanks for staying Alameda Strong!
