Eleonor Bayer

On Dec. 5, 2020, Eleonor Bayer, 76, a courageous woman, loving spouse and mother of four, passed away.

Eleonor was born on Feb. 15, 1944, to Mariano and Helen (Gonzales) Miranda. She received her nursing degree from St. Paul University, and she owned and operated her own Board and Care facility. She raised four children: Rowena, Louie, Wendy and Gilbert and shared a 36-year partnership with her spouse, Harry Shim.

care of the elderly and she used her passion to create extraordinary space for the people she took care of. Her dedication to the people she cared for was much admired by friends, family and the community she lived in.

Eleonor also loved to cook Filipino food, and reveled in teaching others how to cook the wonderful foods she loved to make. She was well known for her kind and compassionate spirit.

Eleonor was preceded in death by her partner Harry. She is survived by her four children: Rowena, Louie, Wendy and Gilbert, her brother Jun, sister-in-law Beth, her grandchildren: Cassandra, Alex, Isabelle and Porter and several cousins, nieces, nephews and close friends.

A virtual memorial service was held on Dec. 9.

In lieu of flowers, send donations to St. Albert the Great Church at 1022 Holly St., Alameda, CA 94502, in her honor.

Going: The high road is Alameda way

keep us supplied with fresh fruit and vegetables from local trees and the Bay-Eagle Community Garden volunteers continue to tend to the food bank's plot and bring us the bounty to share with our clients. Alameda Yacht Club, the Italian American League, Alameda Peeps, Temple Israel, FunAmeda Production's Haunt Your House and other local groups set up fundraisers to help us buy the food we needed to feed their neighbors.

Since we couldn't accept direct food donations, the always prepared Alameda Scouts got creative and redesigned their annual Scouting for Food Drive to go virtual. Each of the Scouts took to social media to solicit donations from their personal networks.

Other local non-profits responding to the pandemic have also benefited from the community's generosity. Hard-hit local businesses have been supported by their loyal customers. The City of Alameda awarded $600,000 in grants to local businesses struggling to stay afloat and quickly restriped Park and Webster streets to allow restaurants to start serving outdoors.

While other communities had a hard time getting residents to take the pandemic seriously, Alamedans were quick to adopt safe practices. Masks quickly became a badge of honor and local businesses complied with sometimes onerous restrictions. No viral videos of scofflaws from this town!

We still have a long way to go, but our track record thus far indicates we'll not only survive but come out stronger as a community.

Folks — who had never turned to us for help before — know they can do so again.

The upside of this for the food bank is that so many more people now know who we are and what we do. Folks — who had never turned to us for help before — know they can do so again if they run into another rough patch. Many others who stepped forward to help us for the first time will likely continue to support us in the future.

Yes, it's been a difficult year, but when times get tough, this tough community gets going. We'll get through this together and be stronger for it.

Cindy Houts is the Alameda Food Bank Executive Director.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA To Donald Jacob Rodriguez-Ramos:

YOU ARE HEREBY CITED TO appear at 2:30pm on January 22, 2021, in Department 503 of the above-entitled court, located at 24405 Amador Street, Hayward, CA 94544, via remote hearing at www.BlueJeans.com, Meeting ID 5106902713, then and there to show cause, if any you have, why Genesis Alexandra Rodriguez-Diaz should not be declared free from your custody and control for the purpose of placement for adoption as requested in the Petition To Terminate Parental Rights of Birth Father (Family Code §8604(b)). The following information concerns rights and procedures that relate to this proceeding for the termination of custody and control of said minor as set forth in Family Code Section 7860 et seq.: 1. At the beginning of the proceeding the court will consider whether the interests of the minor child require the appointment of counsel. If the court finds that the interests of the minor do require such protection, the court will appoint counsel to represent her, whether or not she can afford counsel. The minor will not be present in court unless she requests or the court so orders. 2. If a parent of the minor appears without counsel and is unable to afford counsel, the court must appoint counsel for the parent, unless the parent knowingly and intelligently waives the right to be represented by counsel. The court will not appoint the same counsel to represent the minor and the parent. 3. The court may appoint either the public defender or private counsel. If private counsel is appointed, he or she will receive a reasonable sum for compensation and expenses, the amount of which will be determined by the court. The amount must be paid by the real parties in interest, not by the minor, in such proportions as the court believes to be just. If, however, the court finds that any of the real parties in interest cannot afford counsel, the amount will be paid by the court. 4. The court may continue the proceeding for not more than thirty (30) days as necessary for appointed counsel to become acquainted with the case.
