Community Meeting Set on Reuse of Carnegie Library
 The public is welcome to share ideas, interest, questions or concerns at a community meeting for the renovation of Alameda's Carnegie Library into the Carnegie Innovation Hall. The event will take place at The Local, 1333 Park St., Saturday, April 13, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The idea for the Carnegie Innovation Hall is to create a location that pairs educational programming and entrepreneurship with the arts, performance, music and technology. The development team needs community input and involvement to help shape their program and events. For more information visit <https://carnegieinnovationhall.org>.

Call for Makers Open for Alameda Mini Maker Faire
 More than 70 makers, scientists, garage tinkerers, artists and crafters are needed to showcase their work at the 2019 Alameda Mini Maker Faire on Sunday, Aug. 11, at Alameda Point.
 The faire is especially looking for exhibits that are interactive or highlight the process of making things. To sign up, visit <https://alameda.makerfaire.com/call-for-makers>.
 For more information on any of these events, write to the city's Economic Development Department at econdev@alameda.ca.gov.

SHIN BUDDHISM
 Natural Practice

The Buddhist Temple of Alameda will offer a spring series of classes on Buddhism beginning in April 2019. We will explore aspects of Buddhism in everyday practice.

Classes will be held from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. on:

Thursday, April 4
 Thursday, April 11
 Thursday, May 2
 Thursday, May 9
 Thursday, June 6
 Thursday, June 13

at the
 Buddhist Temple of Alameda
 2325 Pacific Avenue
 Alameda, California

Life responsibilities of work, home, and family increase the demands upon each of us. Declining health of those we care for as well as ourselves is an ongoing process. Age and illness confront us all. Despite such difficulties, stability and grounding allows us to proceed with strength and joy.

This series of classes is free of charge and open to the general public.

Hosted by the Buddhist Education Committee, Buddhist Temple of Alameda. For further information and updates, please view our website btoa.org or contact Reverend Dennis Fujimoto at (916) 416-0919, phone or text, at revdjoshin@gmail.com

SUMMONS (Family Law)

NOTICE TO RESPONDENT (Name): Victor S. Chavez
 You have been sued. Read the information below and on the next page.
 Petitioner's name is: Victoria H. Sun
CASE NUMBER: SCCV FL 14-0204

You have 30 calendar days after this Summons and Petition are served on you to file a Response (form FL-120 or FL-123) at the court and have a copy served on the petitioner. A letter, phone call, or court appearance will not protect you. If you do not file your Response on time, the court may make orders affecting your marriage or domestic partnership, your property, and custody of your children. You may be ordered to pay support and attorney fees and costs. For legal advice, contact a lawyer immediately. Get help finding a lawyer at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp), at the California Legal Services website (www.lawhelpca.org), or by contacting your local county bar association.

NOTICE—RESTRAINING ORDERS ARE ON PAGE 2: These restraining orders are effective against both spouses or domestic partners until the petition is dismissed, a judgment is entered, or the court makes further orders. They are enforceable anywhere in California by any law enforcement officer who has received or seen a copy of them.

FEE WAIVER: If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the clerk for a fee waiver form. The court may order you to pay back all or part of the fees and costs that the court waived for you or the other party.

1. The name and address of the court are Superior Court of California, County of Siskiyou, Yreka Division, 311 - 4th Street, Yreka, CA 96097
 2. The name, address, and telephone number of the petitioner's attorney, or the petitioner without an attorney, are: Law Offices of Chris Morris, 601 Van Ness Avenue, Suite #2056, San Francisco, CA 94102.
 Date: 3/2/2016
 Mary Frances McHugh, Clerk, by M. Ingle, Deputy STANDARD FAMILY LAW RESTRAINING ORDERS
 Starting immediately, you and your spouse or domestic partner are restrained from: 1. removing the minor children of the parties from the state or applying for a new or replacement passport for those minor children without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court; 2. cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage, including life, health, automobile, and disability, held for the benefit of the parties and their minor children; 3. transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life; and 4. creating a nonprobate transfer or modifying a nonprobate transfer in a manner that affects the disposition of property subject to the transfer, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court. Before revocation of a nonprobate transfer can take effect or a right of survivorship to property can be eliminated, notice of the change must be filed and served on the other party.

You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days prior to incurring these extraordinary expenditures and account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these restraining orders are effective. However, you may use community property, quasi-community property, or your own separate property to pay an attorney to help you or to pay court costs.

NOTICE—ACCESS TO AFFORDABLE HEALTH INSURANCE: Do you or someone in your household need affordable health insurance? If so, you should apply for Covered California. Covered California can help reduce the cost you pay towards high quality affordable health care. For more information, visit www.coveredca.com. Or call Covered California at 1-800-300-1506.

WARNING—IMPORTANT INFORMATION
 California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If either party to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the deed that characterizes how title is held (i.e., joint tenancy, tenants in common, or community property) will be controlling, and not the community property presumption. You should consult your attorney if you want the community property presumption to be written into the recorded title to the property. Proin quam. Etiam ultrices.
