YES^{ON} L1
 FAIR RENT CONTROL

NO^{ON} M1
 RADICAL RENT CONTROL

Remember this?

Last November the people of Alameda voted down M1 2 to 1, yet Council Members Jim Oddie, Mary Ezzy Ashcroft, and Malia Vela, have taken major sections of M1 and put it into law by radically altering our Alameda Rent Control Ordinance.

Please sign the referendum to overturn their changes!

Make your VOTE matter!
 Bring back L1!

The Sun Shines Everywhere

Arnon, Amy, Reuben and Asa Goldberg spent a day on their East Coast Spring Break trip at the super-fun Hersheypark in Hershey, Pa. Of course, the Goldbergs brought the Alameda Sun along to delve into the chocolate goodness. Aside from enjoying the rides and gorging on junk food, they also learned that the almonds used in Hershey bars come from California.

"The Sun Shines Everywhere" attempts to show the Alameda Sun in every state of the Union and every country in the world. Submit a small descriptive paragraph along with your photo via email to editor@alamedasun.com.

ISLAND CITY WOMEN IN BUSINESS

Diane Hayes Owner

As the proprietor of one of the last original shade shops, Diane Hayes has continued the family business with resounding success, offering a wide range of authentic Victorian window shades both locally and nationally with the aid of her website, shadeshop.com. Her business prides itself in its offering of a wide range of antique and modern styles reflecting the local flora of tastes, and its dedication to customer service. Diane's background as a machinist and her contractor's experience ensures that she will not sell a product that she does not stand behind. Besides her hand-crafted roller shades, Diane's shade shop offers all forms of window coverings to her local customers - anything from drapes to verticals, and everything in between. Because of her investment in the community, Diane urges customers to come into the shop and see for themselves her full and stunning gallery of window coverings.
